

Youth Leadership Forum

Tuesday, July 17

Today was a long and very informative day. There were many speakers that came and informed you about many different topics. The day started out with Shelby Hildreth with the DMACC college assistance program she talked about how to ask for accommodations in college.

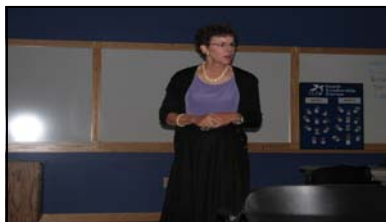

Billie Ruth-Sucher followed giving tips for success in getting jobs and careers.

Sgt. Liz Grief from the Iowa State Security came and informed you about resources that are available for self-protection and awareness at work and school.

Luann Alameo did an interesting presentation about manners, etiquette, and the proper posture a person should use.

Mike Hoenig, from Center for disabilities and Development came and did a presentation on his experiences with self advocacy.

At the end of day everybody went to Memorial Union for Recreational night. There was games such as Bowling, pool, and arcade games...Mike's big bag of quarters came in handy!!!
